

From: Katie Fite <katiemesa@gmail.com>
Subject: cheatgrass spreading from road gravel margin into surrounding unburned lands
Date: November 8, 2015 5:54:10 PM MST

To:
Cc:
Bcc:

Pat,
Please recall that Gene Bray and I documented the appearance of cheatgrass in association with the large-scale gravel pits and disturbance in the West Little Owyhee country.

Now it blankets the roadsides, and grazing disturbance is spreading it all across the surrounding lands - through trampling into battered and depleted sage sites.

This demonstrates what madness the "FIAT" massive fuelbreaks disturbance and road footprint will be.

Katie Fite
WildLands Defense
PO Box 125
Boise, ID 83701

